Entry Procedure

All participants for the Europa Cup Final have qualified through the Danubia and StarClass series. They will be invited by their National Federations through the respective Contact persons of Danubia and StarClass series.

The names of skaters who are withdrawn from participation must be communicated as quick as pos-sible to the Contact persons of Danubia: Atilla Telegdi and for StarClass: Elena Comolo. Reason for this is that in that case the next qualified skater can be invited.

Clubs and federations have to confirm the entry or withdrawal of skaters for the Europa Cup Final plus all other requested reservations into the entry system on the website:

www.shorttrackonline.info

Information to be given into the entry system:

- confirmation of skater to compete
- withdrawal of skater
- name of teamleader/coach using the free accreditation
- name of extra accompanying officials
- number of senior skaters using the hotel-accommodation and meals with payment
- request for extra training session
- request for information about transport from and to Riga International airport ,request transportation from and to Ventspils Bus station .

Final entry must be submitted not later than Tuesday 13 March 2018

Clubs and Federations have a special password for login to the entry page for Competitions. If not available they can apply for a login with the webmaster through the website. Clubs from East Europe are requested to pay attention to the fact that they can not use the password from the web-site www.shorttracklive.info. Federations are requested to pay attention to the fact that they can not use the password they received from the ISU for entering skaters for ISU Championships or World cups. In both cases, if not available, a new login password must be requested through the en-try page of the website.

Please be very careful with the entry in counting the exact numbers of reservations per club/country and that there are no double reservations made among clubs and federations!
