As a participant in the XXIII Olympic Winter Games PyeongChang 2018 (the "2018 Games"), I acknowledge and agree that my participation in the 2018 Games is conditional upon my acceptance of and my compliance with all the provisions of these Conditions of Participation and related rules referred to herein, which have been determined by the International Olympic Committee (the "IOC") and the PyeongChang 2018 Organizing Committee for the Olympic and Paralympic Games ("PyeongChang 2018").

For participants who are minors under the laws applicable in their country of residence at the time of signing this Conditions of Participation form, their participation in the 2018 Games is further conditioned upon the participant's parents or legal guardian confirming their approval with the consent granted hereunder by the minor participant through the signature of the Parent/Legal Guardian Acknowledgment of Consent for Minors.

1. Capture and Use of Images: Participants may be filmed and photographed, during the 2018 Games

Understanding that as a participant in the Olympic Games, participating in an exceptional event which has ongoing international and historical significance and, in consideration of the acceptance of my participation therein, I agree to be filmed, televised, photographed, identified and/or otherwise recorded during the Olympic Games, and that my captured or recorded image, together with my name, likeness, voice, performance and biographical information, may be used in any content, format and through any media or technology whether now existing or created in the future, by the IOC and third parties authorized by the IOC during and after the Olympic Games in perpetuity in relation to the celebration and promotion of the Olympic Games, the Olympic Movement and the IOC in a commercial or non-commercial manner.

2. Processing of personal information: PyeongChang 2018, the IOC and Korean authorities require access to certain information, in particular to ensure the security at the 2018 Games, manage accreditations, competitions and results, carry out the anti-doping activities, prevent manipulations of competitions and provide services to participants and to the media.

I agree to personal information about me ("Personal Data") being collected by PyeongChang 2018 and shared with the IOC and to such data being stored and used by PyeongChang 2018 and the IOC in any place required for their operations (including outside the Republic of Korea), for the purposes of facilitating my participation in, and/or organising, the 2018 Games. This consent includes in particular the right for PyeongChang 2018 and the IOC to collect and process my Personal Data, including where necessary to share such data with Korean law enforcement authorities, the World Anti-Doping Organisation, the Court of Arbitration for Sport and other third parties, in all manners and for the duration necessary for the following purposes:

- Security risk assessments and other verifications to be carried out by the Korean authorities in order to grant accreditation for the Olympic Games;
- investigation and/or prosecution of breaches of any of the provisions referred to in paragraph 3 below (which may require, for example, the collection and analysis of blood and urine samples for doping related cases or of other relevant information in relation to the prevention of the manipulation of competitions);
- statistics, historical studies and other research projects conducted during and after the 2018 Games; and
- any other data processing operation to which I provide my express consent to PyeongChang 2018 and/or the IOC.

I have taken note that I can contact PyeongChang 2018 and the IOC at the following address in order to exercise my right to request access, rectification or deletion of my, or the Participant's, personal information:

- POCOG Accreditation Department: 108-27, Olympic-ro, Daegwallyeong-myeon, Pyeongchang-gun, Gangwon-do 25347, Republic of Korea;
- IOC Department of Legal Affairs: Château de Vidy, 1007 Lausanne, Switzerland (privacy@olympic.org)

3. Compliance with Olympic Charter and other rules: participation in the 2018 Games is subject to the compliance with the fundamental rules governing the Olympic Movement, which aim at ensuring the integrity of the 2018 Games and protecting the clean athletes. I confirm that I have full knowledge of the provisions applicable to my participation in the 2018 Games and that I agree to comply with all the rules, and responsibilities applicable to my participation in the 2018 Games, in particular those arising from the following texts:

- the Olympic Charter and, in particular, the provisions reproduced on the back of these Conditions of Participation and related IOC guidelines and regulations;
- the World Anti-Doping Code, as well as the IOC Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the 2018 Games and any related regulations;
- the IOC Code of Ethics, and in particular the Rules on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions applicable to the 2018 Games and thus I will not participate in, support (including by disclosing inside information) or promote betting related to the 2018 Games;
- the IOC Social and Digital Media Guidelines.

I confirm that the above referred texts and all the rules, and responsibilities applicable to my participation in the 2018 Games, have been brought to my attention by my International Federation and by the IOC, among others through the IOC's official website: www.olympic.org

4. Acknowledgment and acceptance of risks while participating at the 2018 Games: participation may imply exposure to certain risks (i.e. injury, loss of property), which despite all care taken by PyeongChang 2018 and the IOC may not be completely eliminated. I agree that I participate in the 2018 Games at my own risk; that I will take all reasonable measures to protect myself from the risks of participation; that I am responsible for all property I bring into the Olympic Games sites and that PyeongChang 2018 and the IOC shall have no responsibility for any loss or damage to this property. To the fullest extent admissible under applicable laws, I irrevocably release PyeongChang 2018 and the IOC (and their respective members, directors, officers, employees, volunteers, contractors or agents) from any liability for any loss, injury or damage that I may suffer in relation to my participation in the Olympic Games.

5. Arbitration: the Court of Arbitration for Sport is exclusively competent to finally settle all disputes arising in connection with the participation in the 2018 Games which have not been resolved by sports governing bodies.

I agree that any dispute or claim arising in connection with my participation at the 2018 Games, not resolved after exhaustion of the legal remedies established by the International Federation governing my sport, NOC, PyeongChang 2018 and the IOC, shall be submitted exclusively to the Court of Arbitration for Sport ("CAS") for final and binding arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration shall be in Lausanne, Switzerland and the language of procedure English. The decisions of the CAS shall be final, binding and non-appealable, subject to the appeal to the Swiss Federal Court. I hereby waive my right to institute any claim, arbitration or litigation, or seek any other form of relief, in any other court or tribunal.

I confirm that I have read and agreed to all the provisions of these Conditions of Participation and that my signature below is authentic and is the signature of the participant named above.

Olympic Charter - Selected Excerpts

Rule 40: Participation in the Olympic Games

To participate in the Olympic Games, a competitor, team official or other team personnel must respect and comply with the Olympic Charter and World Anti-Doping Code, including the conditions of participation established by the IOC, as well as with the rules of the relevant IF as approved by the IOC, and the competitor, team official or other team personnel must be entered by his NOC.

Bye-law to Rule 40

1. Each IF establishes its sport's rules for participation in the Olympic Games, including qualification criteria, in accordance with the Olympic Charter. Such criteria must be submitted to the IOC Executive Board for approval.
2. The application of the qualification criteria lies with the IFs, their affiliated national federations and the NOCs in the fields of their respective responsibilities.
3. Except as permitted by the IOC Executive Board, no competitor, team official or other team personnel who participates in the Olympic Games may allow his person, name, picture or sports performances to be used for advertising purposes during the Olympic Games.
4. The entry or participation of a competitor in the Olympic Games shall not be conditional on any financial consideration.

Rule 48: Media Coverage of the Olympic Games

1. The IOC takes all necessary steps in order to ensure the fullest coverage by the different media and the widest possible audience in the world for the Olympic Games
2. All decisions concerning the coverage of the Olympic Games by the media rest within the competence of the IOC.

Bye-law to Rule 48

1. It is an objective of the Olympic Movement that, through its contents, the media coverage of the Olympic Games should spread and promote the principles and values of Olympism.
2. The IOC Executive Board establishes all technical regulations and requirements regarding media coverage of the Olympic Games, which are reflected in the Host City Contract. Such technical regulations and requirements, and all other instructions of the IOC Executive Board, are binding on any and all persons involved in media coverage of the Olympic Games.
3. Only those persons accredited as media may act as journalists, reporters or in any other media capacity. Under no circumstances, throughout the duration of the Olympic Games, may any athlete, coach, official, press attaché or any other accredited participant act as a journalist or in any other media capacity.

Bye-law to Rule 50

1. No form of publicity or propaganda, commercial or otherwise, may appear on persons, on sportswear, accessories or, more generally, on any article of clothing or equipment whatsoever worn or used by the athletes or other participants in the Olympic Games, except for the identification - as defined in paragraph 8 below - of the manufacturer of the article or equipment concerned, provided that such identification shall not be marked conspicuously for advertising purposes.

The IOC Executive Board shall adopt guidelines that provide further details on the implementation of this principle. Any violation of this Bye-law 1 and the guidelines adopted hereunder may result in disqualification of the person or delegation concerned, or withdrawal of the accreditation of the person or delegation concerned, without prejudice to further measures and sanctions which may be pronounced by the IOC Executive Board or Session. The numbers worn by competitors may not display publicity of any kind and must bear the Olympic emblem of the OCOG.

8. The word "identification" means the normal display of the name, designation, trademark, logo or any other distinctive sign of the manufacturer of the item, appearing not more than once per item.
9. The OCOG, all competitors, team officials, other team personnel and all other participants in the Olympic Games shall comply with the relevant manuals, guides, regulations or guidelines, and all other instructions of the IOC Executive Board, in respect of all matters subject to Rule 50 and this Bye-law
