No additional prize money will be given to any of the competitors, either eligible or ineligible, directly or indirectly for this competition. Withholding tax will be deducted from the above prize money.

LIABILITY

The Japan Skating Federation, The International Skating Union and Saitama Super Arena take no responsibility for liability with respect to bodily or personal injury or property loss or damage incurred by competitors or officials.

DOPING

Doping test will be carried out in accordance with ISU Regulations and ISU Communications Numbers 1765 and 1800. In Open International Competitions or New Method/System Competitions sanctioned by the ISU, doping tests are mandatory and all skaters competing at International Open Competitions or New Method/System Competitions including the ineligible skaters may be tested. In addition to the winner, a minimum of 1 skater per discipline shall be selected by random draw to be tested.

Prior to the competition, all skaters entered for such competitions must accept in writing to be submitted to doping tests that will be conducted under the control of the ISU Member and in consultation with the ISU Medical Advisors.

Skaters who refuse to accept this procedure will not be allowed to skate. In case of refusal to give the required sample after the competition (after initially having agreed) and in case of positive results, sanctions as per ISU Regulations will apply for the eligible skaters. For the ineligible skaters the ISU Council will take the necessary decision which could consist of preventing the ineligible skater involved from being invited to Open International Competitions/New Method/System Competitions for a certain period of time, as well as withholding the payment of prize money and other benefits. In this respect, the organizers will pay the skaters' benefits after the competitions and only upon receipt of the doping test results.
