

October 26, 2021

Lausanne, Switzerland

ISU Four Continents Speed Skating Championships 2022 allotted to Calgary/Canada

The ISU was informed by the Japanese Skating Federation (JSF) of the cancellation of the ISU Four Continents Speed Skating Championships, that was scheduled to take place from January 28 – 30, 2022 in Obihiro (JPN).

The Council reviewed the spontaneous application from Speed Skating Canada to host this Championships and decided to allot the ISU Four Continents Speed Skating Championships 2022 to Calgary/Canada.

The ISU regrets that the hosting of these Championships will not be in Obihiro as originally scheduled but is pleased that the event will take place in Calgary and thanks the Japanese Skating Federation and Speed Skating Canada for their efforts and cooperation.

Subscribe to the ISU Press Releases and Newsletter to receive the latest information from the ISU.

About the International Skating Union

The International Skating Union (ISU), founded in 1892, is the oldest governing international winter sport federation and the exclusive international sport federation recognized by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) administering the sports of Figure Skating (Single & Pair Skating and Ice Dance), Synchronized Skating, Speed Skating and Short Track Speed Skating worldwide. The objectives of the ISU are to regulate, govern, promote and develop its sports on the basis of friendship and mutual understanding between athletes. Currently three ISU disciplines are included in the Olympic Winter Games program (Figure Skating, Speed Skating and Short Track Speed Skating). For further information please visit isu.org.